ST. James's February 18. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Midhurſt in the County of Suſſex; preſented to his Majeſty by John Forteſcue-Aland Eſq; Sollicitor-General to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and one of the Repreſentatives of that Borough, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the Abſence of his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

An humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Antrim in Ireland, preſented to his Majeſty by Clotworthy Upton, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom.

An humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentry of the County of Lincoln; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the abſence of the Right Honourable the Earl of Lindſey, Lord Great Chamberlain.

Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Peterſbourg Jan. 21. Yeſterday being the Day of Thankſgiving for the King of Great Britain's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, Mr Mackenzy his Majeſty's Reſident here entertained at Dinner all the Foreign Miniſters, with ſome Perſons of Diſtinction of this Court, ſeveral Ladies, and the principal Merchants of the Britiſh Nation, to the Number of 54 in all. The Czar continues here: Some Regiments of Ruſſian Horſe are ſaid to be on their March hither from Finland; and that after being new cloathed they are to proceed to join the Body of Forces commanded by Prince Repnin on the Frontiers of Courland.

Stockholm, Jan. 29. The 20th of this Month being the Day appointed in Great Britain for returning Thanks to God for his Majeſty King George's Acceſſion to the Throne, the ſame was obſerved here by the Subjects of the Britiſh Nation with all Demonſtrations of Duty and Loyalty. In the Forenoon Divine Service was performed in the Houſe of Mr. Jackſon his Britannick Majeſty's Reſident, and a Sermon ſuited to the Occaſion was preached by Mr. Dubordieu the Reſident's Chaplain. After which, all the Britiſh Merchants and others, together with the Reſident of the States-General, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, were entertained at Dinner by Mr. Jackſon; during which above 200 Guns were fired at the Drinking of his Majeſty's, their Royal Highneſſes, and other Healths, a Signal being given to the Britiſh Ships in the Harbour by ten Guns placed in the Reſident's Garden for that purpoſe; and in the Evening his whole Houſe was illuminated, and two Casks of Wine ran from a Balcony to the People in the Street till 10 a Clock. The 19th four Troops of Cavalry, part of a Regiment called the Life-Regiment, marched through this City in their Way to Carlſcrona, the ſaid Regiment being one of thoſe which his Swediſh Majeſty has ordered to be ſent over to him: The other Regiments which his Majeſty has named to be tranſported to Pomerania are, the Eaſt-Goths, the North and South Sconingers, the Smolanders and Collonel Bennet's, all five Cavalry, with the Scaraberg, Calmar and Lahn Regiments of Infantry, which together will make full 9000 Men. The 22d Lieutenant-General Lieven, Director of the Marine Affairs, ſet out from hence for Carlſcrona, in order to begin the fitting out of the Squadron of Men of War which is to convoy the Tranſports with theſe Troops: For which Service the Chamber of Contributions have aſſigned to that General the Taxes of the Provinces adjoining to Carlſcrona: In the mean while the Regiments ordered on this Expedition are all in Motion towards that Place, tho' as two of them have near 160 Leagues to March, 'tis computed they cannot reach thither before the End of March. On the 24th, the Marriage of the Princeſs Ulrica Eleanora with the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel was declared at this Court; and the ſame Evening her Royal Highneſs and the Prince received the Compliments of the Senators, Foreign Miniſters, and Officers of the Court, on that Occaſion; as they have likewiſe ſince done from the Clergy of this City, and the ſeveral Courts and Colleges; but 'tis not yet known when the Nuptials will be celebrated. The Day they were betrothed, the Prince made her Royal Highneſs a Preſent of Diamonds valued at 30000 Crowns.

Vienna, Feb. 10. We have Letters from Conſtantinople dated the 10th of laſt Month, which give an account, that by order of the Grand Signior the Venetian Conſul and Merchants at Smyrna were obliged to imbark and to depart that Place the 26th of December: Two Ships belonging to the Venetian Merchants which had been detained at Conſtantinople, were ſet at liberty the 2d of January, and immediately ſailed for Venice, having on Board all the Subjects of that Republick which were at Conſtantinople; only the Baillo or Ambaſſador of that State is ſtill kept in his Confinement. On the 5th of January an Aga was diſpatched from the Port, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary and a Retinue of 28 Perſons, to endeavour to prevail with this Court not to give any Aſſiſtance to the Venetians. The Grand Signior propoſed to be going in the beginning of April to Diſpotjaylaty, near Lariſſa, to haſten the March of the Troops towards the Morea.

Hambourg, Feb. 19. 'Tis adviſed from Berlin, that the King of Pruſſia was gone to Brandenbourg, to take a Review of ſome Regiments there, and will return to Berlin the 24th Inſtant. Count Flemming, Miniſter of the King of Poland, ſet out from Berlin the 12th of this Month for Warſaw, whence he propoſes to return to the Court of Pruſſia within three Weeks. 'Tis adviſed from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark has given order for having every thing in readineſs for his Departure, his Majeſty being determined to go to Holſtein as ſoon as the Seaſon will permit. On the 15th ſeveral Companies of Danes paſſed from the Dutchy of Bremen to Holſtein, which with two Regiments from Jutland, are to join the Troops already poſted along the Trave.

Bruſſels, Feb. 21. Two Days ago M. Vandenberg, Miniſter of the States-General for the ordinary Affairs of the Spaniſh Netherlands, had an Interview at Mechlin with Count Rechteren one of their High Mightineſſes Plenipotentiaries for regulating the Barrier: The former returned hither the ſame Evening; as the latter did to Antwerp, and proceeded the next Morning for Holland. Laſt Night M. de Welderen, another Deputy of their High Mightineſſes, arrived here from the Hague; after a ſtay of two or three Days he will go on to Maeſtricht, whither he is ſent by the States in order to renew the Magiſtracy of that Place. Count Lannoy is ſet out for Namur, to enter upon his Employment of Adminiſtrator of that Province, as well as of Luxembourg, in the Emperor's Name.

Hague, Feb. 22. Yeſterday the States of Holland came to a Reſolution for the Payment of the Men of War that are to be fitted out to ſerve in the Baltick. Mr. Cadogan paſſed through Francfort the 16th Inſtant on his way to the Court of Vienna, where 'tis reckoned he arrived as this Day. There are Advices, that the Elector of Cologne has determined to ſet out from Liege the 25th of this Month with his Guards for Bonn, and that he has order-
